At the slightest sign of danger St. Albans pulled their men back to cover Whiteaker and if the defence did weaken Whiteaker was always around to mop up.

Stuart Thompson worked extremely hard in mid-field to keep Wanderers' build-up moving and linked well with Barry Baker. Fielding the team which drew at Loakes Park, Wycombe slightly altered their formation with Lailey reverting to his

The deciding goal came in the 86th minute — four minutes from extra-time. Thomas was caught in possession inside his own area and was robbed by Butterfield.

hooked past Maskell by Broomfield, standing with his back to the goal. The ball sailed into the top left hand corner to end Wycombe's Cup dreams.
